

Position: Internship – Project Engineer

Seniority Level: Internship

Industry: Construction – Commercial, Industrial, Government

Employment Type: Full-Time

Job Functions: Construction

Overview

Our interns bring innovation, influence and grit to help us become the premier leader in development, construction, and consultancy. We bring meaningful opportunities designed to help you maximize your potential and make an impact. At Gutier, we make it happen. And you can too, so bring your energy to ours.

Our organization is seeking highly motivated college students to be a part of our Internship Program. Throughout the program, you'll interface with and learn from Williams' leaders and participate in activities with your fellow interns. You will develop problem-solving and technical skills through real-world experience in Safety, quality, scheduling, cost control, risk analysis and gain exposure to construction management and project management. You may also can gain knowledge in contract management, budgeting, procurement and scope management as well as specific commercial, industrial & government industry technical disciplines. This internship position is in Houston, Texas.

Our Internship Program Offers

- Meaningful work
- Technical mentoring by subject matter experts
- Real-time feedback
- Networking across the enterprise
- Collaborative and inclusive culture
- Access to senior leadership

Responsibilities / Expectations

- Develops understanding of Gutier's core business and operating areas
- Gathers and analyzes real-time data to identify efficiencies and ensures proper project execution
- Builds credibility with customers by contributing to major projects and capital expansions
- Collaborates with various teams across operating areas and disciplines to achieve enterprise goals
- Demonstrates excellent organizational/interpersonal skills and safety as the utmost priority
- Follows and supports Gutier's Core Values
- Other duties as assigned

Qualifications

- Currently pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Construction Management
- Legally authorized to work in the U.S.

Preferred Requirements

- Ability to work independently, within a team and within a matrix environment
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Possess strong problem solving, analytical and creative thinking skills
- Demonstrates intermediate-advanced level of utilizing Microsoft Applications (Word, Excel, Outlook and PowerPoint)
- Ability to learn and excel in Procore project management software
- Proven leadership experience within a work, project and/or campus environment

About Us

Gutier is a fully-integrated construction services leader in development, construction, and consultancy. Clients trust Gutier to deliver project execution services to optimize their assets, improve their competitive positioning, and increase their long-term business success. Our primary objective is to develop, execute, and maintain projects with operational excellence, and with the highest of Health, Safety, and Environmental (HSE) standards.

Gutier believes its success is 100% dependent of its people. The commitment to excellence that permeates throughout the organization has been the most vital element to Gutier's growth opportunities. Because of this, client's know they have a trusted partner to help them build and support their company's future.

At Gutier, you'll have the opportunity to make a difference every day while fulfilling your personal and professional ambitions. Our entrepreneurial culture lets you guide your destiny and shape the path of your career travels.

Please send all resumes to info@gutier.com